2026 BURSARIES

At NewBridge Graduate Institute, we offer the following bursaries. To be considered for a bursary, you will need to have achieved one of the following criteria in your grade 12 year.

SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS AND BURSARY CRITERIA
C Average, presented school 1st or 2nd team, recognised participation in school cultural activities (all rounders may apply)	20%
B Average, Prefects, 1st team sport or cultural Captain or Vice Captain	35%
A Average, Deputy Head Prefects, Provincial Sport	50%
Dux, Head Prefects, National Sport	65%

Please note: You have 2 months from the date of issue to accept your bursary offer by registering at your chosen campus.

NewBridge Graduate Institute also offers bursaries for other notable achievements, including outside of school achievements. To be considered for a bursary of this nature, please chat to a student advisor at the campus of your choice. In addition to the total fees above, there are additional costs associated with each programme - these opportunities, experiences and items add value to the learning experience. Some are compulsory and some are voluntary. Your student advisor will provide further clarification on these costs.
